

Why Join IFMA?

- IFMA transforms the world of facility management into a community of working partners.
- IFMA represents, supports and unites the largest community of facility management practitioners, consultants, educators, students, and product and service providers in the industry.
- Gain a community of life-long friends from around the world who help you grow, share practical insights and leave a lasting impact on the world.
- Through research efforts, educational programs and resources, professional certification, a network of chapters and councils, and global professional development events, IFMA assists corporate and organizational facility managers in developing strategies to manage human, facility and real estate resources.
- IFMA is the most direct channel of communication between you and the FM world.
- Representing more than 19,000 members, IFMA focuses its efforts on leading and sustaining the progress of the profession, while also advancing the careers of individual members.
- IFMA members themselves represent more than 65 countries and a variety of specialized areas within the facility management profession. The diversity that characterizes the IFMA community enriches members' networking experiences.
